Possible Racial Violence
Major Urban Areas

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

During the weekend of April 19, 1969, incendiary devices were thrown through the windows of the residences of both Newallo and Jackson. They failed to ignite and minimal damages resulted. Newallo has publicly stated these acts were perpetrated by his enemies in the CCGP. Hempstead police officials are investigating these incidents but no suspects have been developed.

It is noted that the trouble described above concerns blacks only and there are no whites involved. Therefore, any tense racial situation in Hempstead is the result of blacks disagreeing with each other and there is no evidence of white involvement.

80 year old labor and civil rights leader, recently retired as president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, urged militant Negro youths to reject confrontationism and violence in their struggle for freedom and justice. He said "we must reject racial separatism and together with the conviction that one day our nation can cease to be divided within itself, reaffirm our abiding faith in integration. We cannot reject these principles without also denying ourselves the possibility of freedom".

The May 13, 1969, issue of the "New York Post", a New York City daily newspaper, on page 24 carried an article indicating that Roy Wilkins, Executive Director of the NAACP, stated "It's not how a black man wears his hair but what he has inside his head", thereby explaining his, Wilkins', stand that the demands for black studies are "a lot of nonsense".

SANITATION WORKERS DISPUTE
OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLAHOMA

Reference memorandum dated August 11, 1969, at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

The August 11, 1969, issue of the "Oklahoma Journal" contains an article reflecting Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the nation-wide NAACP, had pledged wholehearted support for the Oklahoma City garbage workers' demand for a $100 per month pay raise and five-day work week. According to the article, Wilkins, in New York, stated "We haven't made any definite plans. It's just a question of what form the action will take." The article quoted another NAACP official in New York, Henry Lee Moon, as comparing the Oklahoma City situation with earlier confrontations in Tennessee and South Carolina. Moon stated, "There is no question that we will stand behind them just as we stood by the workers in Memphis and Charleston."

The August 12, 1969, issue of the "Oklahoma Journal" contains an article indicating that a group of ministers representing 26 black members within the 75-member Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance in Oklahoma City, OKIA, announced that they were "shocked" by the city sanitation workers' wages, working conditions and gave their support to the workers' threat to strike. Reverend J. C. West, President of the Alliance, was asked by newsmen what form the pledged support would take and West replied, "If it's necessary to say some more later, we'll say some more. If it's necessary to do some more, we'll do some more."

The August 12, 1969, issue of the "Daily Oklahoman" contains an article stating that City Manager Robert H. Oldland, Oklahoma City, had reiterated his pledge that any sanitation worker walking off his job on August 19, 1969, will be dismissed. He said volunteers from the parks, street, water and sewer work forces will supplement sanitation crews if regular workers do refuse to work August 19th. Oldland stated that the city will continue to refuse to respond to demands or ultimatums but indicated some complaints by sanitation workers may be resolved soon. Oldland stated that no action on a pay raise for the sanitation workers will be taken until a scheduled review of pay raises for sanitation workers and other city jobs is completed around the end of the year. According to the article, the Oklahoma City Youth Council of the NAACP has pledged to stand or lie down in front of garbage trucks to halt sanitation operations August 19th, if the workers strike.

National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Youth Council

The August 13, 1969, issue of the "Daily Oklahoman" reflects that City Manager Oldland would meet on August 13, 1969, and August 14, 1969, with city sanitation workers for a general dialogue and briefing on new working conditions. Oldland outlined the new job conditions which includes a five-day, 40-hour week beginning September 2, 1969. He had presented this report on job conditions and changes to the Oklahoma City Council on August 12, 1969, and the council members approved the report and urged Oldland to make the same report directly to the sanitation workers. The article quotes Mrs. Clara Luper, Advisor to the NAACP Youth Council, as stating she did not think the sanitation workers will be satisfied with Oldland's program. She said she felt a pay increase which has been rejected by Oldland is a key issue to the workers. According to the article, State Senator E. Melvin Porter, former NAACP official in Oklahoma City, said he is personally satisfied that Mrs. Luper and other supporters of the sanitation workers aren't planning any activities involving violence. He confirmed that several East Side residents of Oklahoma City had asked him to check on rumors that a sanitation strike may lead to violence and widespread disorder. He said that about 10 persons have expressed concern to him about the involvement of young men that have identified themselves as Black Panthers, in the sanitation controversy. In addition, Porter stated that all indications he has indicate that the Black Panther group intends to follow Mrs. Luper's lead in making a non-violent stand on behalf of the sanitation workers. Porter stressed that he believes the sanitation workers have a legitimate complaint but said he hopes some compromise can be reached before August 19, 1969.

A characterization of the Black Panther Party appears in the appendix section of this communication.

The BPP intends to dominate the conference and claim it will be held at Merritt College, Oakland, California. The President of the college has advised local law enforcement officials that no official request for campus facilities has been received to date, and further, that the college will be holding its regular summer session at the same time.

The BPP claims that it has secured the following as speakers during the conference:

CALIF. Tom Hayden, Founder of the anarchist Students For A Democratic Society (SDS)

A characterization of the SDS is contained in the appendix

CALIF. William Kunstler, New York attorney prominent in Civil Rights matters. CALIF.

CALIF. Charles Garry, San Francisco attorney for the BPP.

Organization of various committees is proceeding, but the agenda is not yet established.

One spokesman for the BPP, when asked the purpose of the conference, stated that it was to teach "Revolutionology".

San Francisco, California Area

On July 1, 1969, Bobby Seale, Chairman of the BPP, gave a press release by reading the text of a telegram received from Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

Wilkins' telegram read as follows:

"I am desirous of exploratory conference with officers of militant group and particularly with you as chairman of the Central Committee of the Black Panther Party. Do not desire public meeting at this time. Certainly cannot arrange trip to West Coast before late July account prior commitments. At this time my desire to explore areas of possible agreement and disagreement is purely an administrative one on my own authority as Chief Executive Officer of NAACP. It is official, of course, but not binding nor does it have the formal endorsement of my Board of Directors. I simply feel very strongly that present situation of our race requires trying to reach some common ground and arrival at some sort of strategy that will be effective even if used in only a few areas. I may be in error and there is not unanimous support even among my immediate co-workers on staff, but I feel I must try. I hope we may continue the effort to arrive at a mutually satisfactory meeting date and place late in July or early in August.
/s/ Roy Wilkins, 1072 Lynch St. after July 7, 790
Broadway New York."

It should be pointed out during the time this telegram was sent, the NAACP was conducting its national convention in Mississippi.

Seale stated he sent Wilkins a telegram on June 30, 1969, stating the Central Committee would meet with Wilkins on July 4, 1969, at a public meeting in DeFremery Park, Oakland, California, in connection with a rally and picnic originally scheduled.

POSSIBLE RACIAL VIOLENCE

Seale stated the BPP will meet with Wilkins only under these terms and to date, no answer has been received from Wilkins. Seale stated that it is obvious that Wilkins does not want to meet with the people and that he is separated from the Black community. He commented that if Wilkins was really concerned, he would have accepted a public meeting.

The "Black Panther" newspaper, for July 5, 1969 published a copy of the telegram and a picture of Roy Wilkins. Under the picture was a subtitle, "The Grand Cop-Out".

The Community Relations Unit, of the San Francisco, California Police Department, which has been under fire in the past months from minority leaders, has seen the previous leader of the Unit retire and a Negro patrolman appointed to head the Unit.

The new head of the Unit has been presented with a new plan of action. The plan was drafted by a member of the Mayor's Crime Committee and calls for sweeping changes and broad community involvement.

Emphasis of the new plan is for the police department to go to the people rather than wait for the people to come to them. The plan proposes seven Divisions; Ethnic and Racial Relations; Youth Relations; Domestic Relations; Complaint Division; Social Abuses; Communications and Research and Library. The plan calls for the establishment of Community Relations Arms in each of the nine district stations.

o RACIAL Matters

Re Savannah airtel to Bureau 7/1/70.

On 7/10/70 a meeting of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) in Augusta was held at which ROY WILKINS was the principal speaker. There were no incidents. On 7/11/70 a march and rally were held in Augusta, Ga., led by WILBERT ALLEN, a self-proclaimed organizer of the Augusta Black Panther Party, without incident. Both gatherings were well attended and received local news attention. Speeches made at both gatherings called for the identities of the Augusta police officers responsible for the deaths of six individuals during the rioting on 5/11-12/70 in Augusta, Ga.

PERSONAL EVALUATION

Sources report that following both of the above gatherings, as well as during regular contacts, tensions appear to be easing in Augusta, Ga. I do not expect at this time that the Savannah Division will have any major racial incidents. No indications have been received to date indicating that the integration of public schools in September, particularly in the rural areas, will be marred with any violence. It is expected that friction among the students will be present initially and perhaps generate minor incidents, however, no major difficulties are expected at this time.

RACIAL DISTURBANCE,
AUGUSTA, GEORGIA,
BEGINNING MAY 11, 1970

b7D, b2 [redacted] advised July 11, 1970, that approximately 500 people attended the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) meeting at the Tabernacle Baptist Church at Augusta, Georgia, at 8:00 p.m. on July 10, 1970, where Roy Wilkins was the principal speaker. Eight or ten whites were present and the remainder were Negroes. The meeting was quiet and orderly with no violence. Those in attendance included Daniel Cross, Augusta, Ga., NAACP official; Frank Madison, a soldier with the U. S. Army at Fort Gordon, Georgia, as well as Matthew Mulherin, Chairman of the Richmond County Board of Commissioners. GA.

GA. According to [redacted] member of the party prior to the meeting Wilbert Lee Allen, self-proclaimed local Black Panther leader, and 15 to 20 unidentified individuals, all dressed in khaki shirts and blue jeans wearing black berets, were lined along the sides of the church in parade rest positions. Immediately before the meeting began, Allen and others in uniform left. Two or three of these uniformed individuals returned inside the church for the meeting but Allen did not return. A characterization of the Black Panther Party is attached hereto in the appendix.

[redacted] advised that the theme of Wilkins' speech was that the blacks and whites of Augusta should unite; that the police officers responsible for the killing of the six blacks in Augusta on May 11, 1970, should be brought to justice and that the city of Augusta owes something to the black community of Augusta.

observed throwing the fire bomb which was found to be a fifth-size whiskey bottle containing kerosene. There was no structural damage to the lounge and the persons responsible were not identified or arrested.

On September 23, 1969, 188 Negroes, all high school student age, were arrested at the Clarksdale High School, a white school, where they had assembled and marched to protest the segregated school system in Clarksdale. They were arrested after they were advised by local authorities that their arrest would result if they trespassed on the school grounds. There was no violence during the incident.

Following the above incident, frequent marches were held at Clarksdale sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) to protest the segregated school system which operated on a district plan and to protest the above arrests.

A boycott of white businesses and picketing of the downtown business area as well as the businesses of the members of the Clarksdale City School Board, was also instituted by the NAACP. Marches were held regularly on Saturdays with as many as 1,700 Negro participants. There were no acts of violence during the marches, meetings or picketing.

Mitchell visit rapped

By JACK NELSON

The Los Angeles Times

WASHINGTON—Mississippi civil rights leaders Thursday launched a campaign for a massive demonstration to protest a scheduled speech by Atty. Gen. John Mitchell to the Delta Council—the epitome of the state's upper-crust white society.

Aaron E. Henry, Mississippi NAACP president said he had failed in quiet efforts to persuade Mitchell not to address the Chamber of Commerce-type organization, which Henry branded "segregationist and racist."

A spokesman for the attorney general said Mitchell does not consider the organization to be racially exclusive and plans to make the speech at its annual meeting on May 19 in Cleveland, Miss.

In letters mailed to other civil rights figures Thursday, Henry accused some Delta Council members of supporting private schools to thwart public school desegregation.

Among those he is inviting to Cleveland are Roy Wilkins, the Rev. Ralph David Abernethy, Whitney Young, Bayard Rustin and A. Philip Randolph.

Henry wrote that he was asking national church and civil rights leaders, as well as some political leaders, to convene in Cleveland on May 18 and 19 "for a demonstration of civil disobedience against Mr. Mitchell's presence here."

For years national political figures journeyed to Cleveland to speak at the council's annual meeting. It was there on May 8, 1947, for example, that then-

Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson first mentioned the European recovery program that a bit later was unfolded by Secretary of State George C. Marshall and became known as the Marshall plan. In his book, "Present at the Creation" Acheson wrote of the Delta Council meeting:

"Once a year the Delta Council meets on the tree-shaded lawn of the teachers college at Cleveland, bringing families and relatives with them to discuss their own area's interests and problems and to hear about the great world to which historically their products have gone. Those most immediately concerned listen to the speaker in the large gymnasium of the college. His words are carried to many more thousands on the surrounding lawn while they eat sandwiches, drink pop, and keep an eye on the sleeping children. The scene is an easy-going, good-natured, shirt-sleeved, thoroughly American one."

By the 1960s, however, the heat generated by the civil rights movement persuaded national politicians that the scene might not be so easy-going and they stopped addressing the council. One of the last invited was Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman. A former council official recalled that "Freeman was supposed to come at about the time the freedom rides started and he suddenly decided he had to inspect the cranberry crop somewhere and couldn't come."

For more than two months Henry, a longtime civil rights leader, tried to convince Mitchell that lending the prestige of the attorney general's office to the Delta Council function would buoy segregationist sentiment.

After Henry first protested, Morris Lewis, Jr. of Indianola council president, wrote him a letter saying that if the council's meeting is all-white "It will be only because no Negroes want to attend. At our annual meetings in the past Negroes have attended and at no time were they denied admittance. . . The Delta Council has never had any restriction on Negro membership."

A spokesman for Mitchell said the attorney general, after receiving a copy of Lewis' letter, decided the council was not racially exclusive.

A former council official who has been a member for more than 20 years told the Los Angeles Times, "I've never seen a black face in the audience at one of our meetings. Negroes are not excluded by the by-laws, but they aren't included as members. It's just like Jews are not excluded by our country club's by-laws, but they're not admitted members."

Council President Lewis, who is Jewish, said in an interview that he financially supports a private school at Indianola. He said he also has supported public schools.

He said he does not know how many of 18-county council's 4,000 members are Negroes "because our membership can't show race, but I recognize one or two names as friends of mine who are Negroes."

"I can say unambiguously I have seen them quite a few times at the meetings," Lewis said. "I can't recall whether I saw the last year or the year before, but I told by people I know that they saw some year."

April 30, 1970

Dear Friend of the Cause of Freedom:

I am sorry to have to report to you that all of our efforts have been futile in trying to persuade the Attorney General of the United States Department of Justice, Attorney John Mitchell to uphold the reputation of the Department of Justice of men who held the office before him. This list begins with Attorney General Brownell and goes thru Attorney General Ramsey Clark, and of course, in between were such dedicated Americans as Robert Kennedy, Nicholas Katzenbach, John Doar, Bob, Lisbon Berry, the Flannerys and many others.

None of these men deminished themselves to the extent that they would openly associate the name of the United States Department of Justice with an organization that was segregationist and racist..

Yet, on May 19, 1970, in spite of the persuasion of many of us, and some members of the U. S. Department of Justice, including Attorney Jack Landau, who reportedly is now on his way out, being fired by the Attorney General. On Friday, April 17, I made another inquiry in the Office of the Attorney General, trying to persuade him not to make the same kind of "Mockery of a department in Washington called "Justice", as is a town in Mississippi called "Liberty". I was informed on that day,... "The Delta Council, although it has no Negro members, that this in the Attorney General's mind did not constitute segregation nor discrimination." Therefore, we have decided to organize a demonstration of Civil Disobedience against this racist identification. We are inviting Mr. Roy Wilkins, Rev. Ralph Abernathy, Mr. Whitney Young, Mr. Bayard Rustin, Mr. A. Phillip Randolph, Rev. Dudley Ward, The National Council of Churches and other Church Groups, The Delta Ministry, The American Friends Service Committee and several national politicians both Democrat and Republican, to join us at a Public Rally at the United Baptist Church, 1028 Christman Street, Ext., on Monday May 18th and at 9:00 A. M. the morning of May 19th and demonstrate to the Nation our objection TO OUR ATTORNEY GENERAL, THE TOP LAW OFFICER IN THE UNITED STATES identifying with a group that remains in the valley of segregation. The activities of the President of the Delta Council and many of its members in support of segregation as they identify with the PRIVATE SCHOOL MOVEMENT that assists white children in the cause to not go to school with Black children is unforgivable.

The meeting is scheduled for Cleveland, Mississippi, May 19, 1970. Your presence is needed.

Your Friend,

Aaron E. Henry

Communiviews

The 36-page booklet captioned, "Who Controls Black Destiny?" is self-described as a publication of Communiviews, a newsletter of the Black Parent, Teacher and Student Coalition, a monthly publication, P. O. Box 17148, Chicago, Illinois 60617, special edition, Volume 111, No. 6, Fall 1972. Page 2 indicates this is the only edition published since Spring, 1972.

Page 1 states: "Our Objectives: The Seven Stages to African Liberation".

The table of contents indicates this booklet contains 20 separate articles of interest to Black people.

The editorial on page 4 applauds President Idi Amin of Uganda for expelling the "Jewish-like" blood sucking Asians from his country. It derides President Julius Nyerere of Tanzania for invading Uganda and not Rhodesia or South Africa.

The cover story on page 5 condemns present Black leaders in industry, social and civic organizations as powerless informants who are really tools of the white man or honkies. Example of these Black traitors are General Benjamin O. Davis, Jr., United States Air Force; Sammy Davis, Jr., Entertainer; Preston Wilcox, Consultant; Roy Wilkins, Executive Director of the NAACP; Dr. Andrew Felton Brimmer, member of the Federal Reserve Board, and Reverend Dr. Leon Howard Sullivan, founder of Opportunities Industrialization Center. U.S.

U.S.
Black man of the month, on page 12 concerns a slanderous attack against George O'Hare, a white man, and the Black priest, Rev. George Clements. The article calls Rev. Clements a "traitor nigger" for naming O'Hare, Black man of the month for April, 1972. O'Hare is a merchandising manager for Sears, Roebuck and Company.

The National Black Political Convention in Gary, Indiana, is discussed on page 13. It was criticized for not being representative of Blacks in the United States, for allowing white "honkies" to be delegates and for not condemning Israel in their dispute with the Arab states. It condemned the actions of Rev. Jesse Jackson of Push, "People United to Save Honkies"; Mayor Hatcher, and legislators Diggs, Newhouse and Dellum's.

of the City Hall just outside the doors of the Council Chambers. Numerous Negro leaders in the City of Memphis were in this "walk out" group including Reverend James Morris Lawson, Jr., pastor of Centenary Methodist Church; Reverend S. B. Kyles, Labor Director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP); Maxine Smith, Executive Secretary of the NAACP, Memphis; Reverend Ezekiel Bell, pastor of Parkway Gardens Presbyterian Church; and an individual tentatively identified as H. Ralph Jackson, of the African Methodist Episcopal (AME) Church. } T-1

Reverend Kyles spoke before television cameramen and newsmen and addressed the audience, stating, "There is no justice for blacks at City Hall," whereupon he was loudly cheered. He was followed by Reverend James Morris Lawson, Jr., who spoke, saying, "We have to escalate our fight," and he emphasized that he would bring a wave of national civil rights leaders and other individuals from other parts of the country to Memphis to aid in the current strike struggle and also emphasized that Roy Wilkins, National Executive Secretary of the NAACP, would appear in town on March 14, 1968, and possibly Bayard Rustin of the A. Philip Randolph Institute would come to Memphis to address the strike supporters.

Reverend Lawson called for all of the protesters to march en masse to Clayborn Temple where they would hold a rally, following which they would all go to his church, the Centenary Methodist Church, 564 East McLemore, for a mass rally on the night of March 12, 1968.

[REDACTED] advised that leaflets were being passed out at various Memphis high schools urging all Negro high school students to stay away from school on Wednesday, March 13, 1968 and to spend the day in strike support activities. [REDACTED] advised that one of the activities scheduled would be a picketing of Central High School in Memphis where Mayor Henry Loeb is scheduled to speak at 8:45 a.m. before the student body. b7D

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 7/18/69

Attached relates to a speech made by Dr. Nathan Hare, a black nationalist and agitator, at Gifford Auditorium, Syracuse University on 7/17/69. During his speech, Hare (1) accused Roy Wilkins, head of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, as being an "Uncle Tom"; (2) stressed the need for total Negro courses in education, including Negro Math; (3) compared the disturbances at San Francisco State College and Cornell University; and (4) stated he would go to Algeria to recruit black professors.

Copy of attached sent Inter-Division Information Unit of Department, and pertinent portions of attached will be included in a teletype summary to White House and other interested agencies.

NAACP leader says blacks should present united front

Blacks should present a united front and practice restraint in dealing with problems, the executive director of the NAACP said Monday in Minneapolis.

"There is nothing sadder than watching a black community that constitutes about 1 percent of the population throwing its weight around like they are the controlling community," director Roy Wilkins said at the 10th annual Opportunities Industrialization Centers (OIC) Convocation.

Wilkins urged the black community to put together a coalition to help them in their causes.

"You won't hear a politician saying he doesn't listen to blacks, even if they are only 1 percent of the population," he added.

Roy Wilkins

Some of the most crucial issues facing blacks today are education, employment, housing, drugs, crime and relationships with the police, Wilkins said.

No matter how large or small a black urban community may be, he said, it must proceed along moral, legal and court persuasions to obtain its goals.

Two things have been realized by blacks in the last few years: The potency of the ballot and unity, Wilkins said.

"People are using the ballot. Even the Black Panthers have realized the potency of the ballot," he said.

Wilkins cited the number of black mayors in the nation. "They were not elected just because they are black but because they were the best men for the jobs," he said.

"There is a unity that never existed before among organizations," Wilkins said. He mentioned the cooperation between OIC and the NAACP: "OIC is a specialized continuation of the NAACP program."

"The great majority of blacks in the community want to learn a trade and have a fair chance at the jobs available. We know OIC can give them that chance," Wilkins said.

GI's protest military racism

A group of 236 black, white, Chicano and Indian GI's--all of them members of the 173rd Airborne Brigade that recently returned from Vietnam--have signed an open letter to Defense Secretary Melvin Laird accusing the armed forces of racial discrimination. The GI's tried to present the letter to Laird earlier this month when the Defense Secretary visited Fort Campbell on the Tennessee-Kentucky border to welcome their brigade home from Southeast Asia. But Gen. William Birdsong, the commander at Fort Campbell where the 173rd is now stationed, refused to allow the GI's to make the presentation. The GI's letter asserted that "throughout our time in the service we've seen minority group GI's discriminated against. In Vietnam that's been evidenced by higher casualty rates. Other times it takes the form of slower promotions, higher penalties for rules violations and the worse job assignments. We feel that the Army fosters racism and has purposely avoided dealing with the day-to-day problems of minority groups."

In a press conference at the fort, Laird told newsmen he had not seen the petition, but acknowledged that the armed forces are beset with serious racial problems. "These are difficult problems," he said. "They are people problems." The secretary also contended, however, that progress has been made toward their solution. "We have made more progress in this area than any administration in American history," he asserted, and he said his source for that opinion is civil rights leader Roy Wilkins of the NAACP.

5 File JAB

Another black leader who is less impressed with the administration's record, however, is Congressman Ronald V. Dellums, a Democrat from Berkeley, Calif. (See Race Relations Reporter, Vol. II, No 5). In an eight-page telegram to the protesting GI's of the 173rd, Dellums told them he supported their efforts to end racism in the armed services, to secure full constitutional rights for GI's and to bring about a complete withdrawal of U. S. forces from Vietnam. Pvt. Mike McIntire of Los Angeles read Dellums' telegram to the cheers of about 50 GI's who were demonstrating peacefully outside Fort Campbell following Laird's departure on Sept. 2. The group was predominantly white, but it also contained a healthy sprinkling of blacks, Spanish-Americans and Indians. McIntire, who is an Indian, explained to RRIC that while non-white GI's may have a more difficult time of it, most of the problems that concern him are common to soldiers of all races. "They are sending us to Vietnam to get ourselves killed for absolutely nothing," he said. "It's a complete farce. And if we do make it back and try to say anything about it, we get hassled by the lifers and investigated by the police." As McIntire was talking, agents with cameras circled the demonstration, carloads of Tennessee State Troopers patrolled nearby, and two long-haired men, whom the protestors said were secret agents, listened intently. * * *

STUDENT ORGANIZATION FOR BLACK UNITY (SOBU)
EXTREMIST MATTERS - SOBU

The Student Organization for Black Unity (SOBU) with headquarters at Greensboro, North Carolina, publishes each two weeks a tabloid-sized newspaper, currently 16 pages in length.

Student Organization for Black Unity (SOBU) was formed in 1969 at Greensboro, North Carolina, with the basic aim to initiate, coordinate, and lead a black student movement in the United States. During May, 1969, an organizational convention was held, attended by well-known black militants from the eastern part of the United States.

Following is a summary of material appearing in the April 15, 1972, issue of this publication:

The lead article on page one is entitled, "Need for New Leadership", and concerns a recent trip to South Africa by ROY WILKINS, Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. This article bitterly attacks WILKINS for not having denounced racial separation in South Africa while in that Country. It includes the statement that WILKINS "--- defended the imperialist role of American businesses which reap great profits through robbing the riches of South Africa, propping up the illegal minority white apartheid regime and totally brutalizing the African and colored populations.

SUFFOLK, VIRGINIA

Reference is made to memorandum from the Norfolk Office of the FBI dated November 4, 1969.

On November 12, 1969, [REDACTED] advised that since November 3, 1969, the situation in the Suffolk-Nansemond County, Virginia, area pertaining to the efforts of Local 26, Distributive Workers of America Union, Suffolk, Virginia, to be recognized by the Louise Obici Memorial Hospital has remained calm and no acts of violence have occurred. XD

[REDACTED] stated that neither Reverend Ralph Abernathy, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), nor any other high official of the SCLC has appeared in Suffolk, Virginia, in connection with instant matter and, therefore, there has been no confrontation with the police. GA

[REDACTED] advised that Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) had appeared in Suffolk, Virginia, on November 6, 1969, at which time he had spoken before approximately 300 people, primarily Negroes, at the Metropolitan Baptist Church in support of the efforts of Local 26 to be recognized by hospital officials. Wilkins stated that the Negroes had no quarrel with the Chief of Police or law enforcement officers, and likewise did not have any quarrel with the local Hospital Board, the Board of Supervisors of Nansemond

County or the Sheriff of that county. Wilkins stated that the complaint was with the system in which the Negro laborer has not found his place. [REDACTED] stated that Wilkins had flown into Tidewater, Virginia, shortly before his speech and left immediately thereafter. There were no incidents as a result of this meeting or Wilkins' speech. b240

[REDACTED] stated negotiations had been conducted between union officials and hospital officials during the past ten days; however, these negotiations had not resulted in any agreement. [REDACTED] stated that hospital officials still are not willing to recognize the union as representing the non-professional workers; however, according to recent articles appearing in local newspapers, the union appears to feel that the hospital has recognized the union inasmuch as they did negotiate or confer with them. Now the union is stressing the point that the hospital should re-hire all striking non-professional employees who have not returned to work at the hospital. [REDACTED] stated the hospital officials have agreed to place the names of all striking nonprofessional employees on the list of applicants at which time when positions open, consideration will be given to employing them equally with any other applicants.

[REDACTED] stated that a small number of pickets daily have picketed the hospital and all of these pickets are former employees who are striking at the hospital. The number of these employees has not been more than 18 or 20 on any given day.

[REDACTED] advised that a total of 50 stores had broken windows as a result of the disturbance which had occurred on October 22, 1969 in connection with the "Solidarity Day March". The total cost of damage was estimated at $12,925.50. This also included the automobile and truck windows which were either broken out by rocks or were shot out. It also included the police vehicles and fire trucks which had broken windows.

THE BLACK PANTHER PARTY AND HISTORY

The essence, of the existence of MAN IN THIS COUNTRY NEEDS TO GET HIS FREEDOM RIGHT NEEDED IN THE IMMEDIATE NEED THAT NOW THAT THING SHOULD EXIST. something must be done to relieve us from the present oppressive social order. A series of activities spearheaded by the Party, ranging from the busting of Huey P. Newton on the streets with his liberation tool, 12 gauge shotgun, to the shoot out in L.A. where 11 nameless niggers held off 100 fascists, all having to tell about it and to talk about those pigs, both being a victory for black people! A victory over fear.

The focal point of party activities is affected by the knowledge that we are afforded very little time by the bloodsucking vultures, which on the other side of the coin tell us that, we must be doing something right. The quickening sickening pace at which the fascists, are presently moving tells us that Black people must use whatever means at their disposal to secure revolutionary political power.

AND I DON'T SEE WHY ANYBODY SHOULD BE SAD OR REGRETFUL IN ANY WAY, SHAPE OR FORM, IF SUCH DOES EXIST. I RECALL IN 1959 WHEN EVERYBODY BEGAN TO TALK ABOUT THE MUSLIMS, ALL THE NEGRO LEADERS SAID NO SUCH GROUP EXISTED. IN FACT I RECALL ON THE MIKE WALLACE SHOW ROY WILKINS WAS ASKED ABOUT THE BLACK MUSLIMS HE SAID HE NEVER HEARD OF THEM AND THEN HE FLASHED A PICTURE OF HIM SHAKING HANDS WITH MR. ROY WILKINS U.S.A.

AND I THINK THAT ONE OF THE MISTAKES THAT OUR PEOPLE MAKE IS, THEY'RE TOO QUICK TO APOLOGIZE FOR SOMETHING THAT MIGHT EXIST THAT THE POWER STRUCTURES FINDS DEPLORABLE OR FINDS DIFFICULT TO DIGEST AND WITHOUT EVEN REALIZING IT'S SOMETIMES WE TRY AND EVEN PROVE THAT IT DOESN'T EXIST. AND IF IT DOESN'T EXIST SOMETIMES IT SHOULD. I AM ONE PERSON WHO BELIEVES THAT ANYTHING THE BLACK

AS FAR AS I'M CONCERNED, EVERYBODY WHO HAS CAUGHT THE SAME KIND OF HELL THAT I CAUGHT IS MY BLOOD BROTHER. AND I HAVE PLENTY OF THEM. BECAUSE ALL OF US HAVE CAUGHT THE SAME HELL SO THE QUESTION IS, IF THEY DON'T EXIST SHOULD THEY EXIST. NOT DO THEY EXIST, SHOULD THEY EXIST? DO THEY HAVE A RIGHT TO EXIST? AND SINCE WHEN SHOULD A MAN DENY THE EXISTENCE OF HIS BLOOD BROTHER. IT'S DENYING HIS FAMILY...

IF WE'RE GOING TO TALK ABOUT POLICE BRUTALITY IT'S BECAUSE POLICE BRUTALITY EXISTS. WHY DOES IT EXIST BECAUSE OUR PEOPLE IN THIS PARTICULAR SOCIETY LIVE IN A POLICE STATE, A BLACK MAN IN AMERICA LIVES IN A POLICE STATE. HE DOESN'T LIVE IN ANY DEMOCRACY. HE LIVES IN A POLICE STATE. THAT'S WHAT IT IS, THAT'S WHAT HARLEM IS...

May 29th, 1964

Malcolm X

The shock troops of racist America have now developed to the point that their murderous, stark naked terror in the eyes of all is the standard. It is no longer shocking. Pigs in N.Y.C. are now wearing "Pigs are beautiful" sweatshirts, failing to recognize that the more they endorse it, the clearer it can be seen. It's not shocking after all, New York is the capital of Babylon. 28 dead Black brothers illustrate the affects of such lies, that pigs are not beautiful. The racist dog cops, don't know that there will always be worse or more descriptive terms which could easily be applied to his notorious nature. Ask Fred Hampton, or brother Mark Clark if pigs are beautiful. Beautiful pigs have murdered Black people ever since we have had the misfortune of being stolen and brought here. "Black is beautiful" went out of style way back, because the statement "Black is beautiful" has never been known to open "open gates, Huey still is not free. Black is beautiful never secured us our liberation we still are not free. By that same token "Black is Beautiful" has never shown that we will be free from the painful unwanted existence of the racist dogs. It has not offed any pigs. The level of the broad masses of Black people is the only correct time clock for revolutionary activity. Babylon has shown us that as high as the level of the people goes, the level of oppression by the pigs goes that much higher. Armed resistance must be the order of the day on all levels. In our short three and one half years of existence we have made an important impression upon Babylonian politics, and racist oppression, never equaled in American history. The boiling point of the meltingpot came when Black men dared to arm themselves, in total defiance of the criminal power structure. Huey P. Newton is our personification of revolutionary historical development. He is the clearest example of correct revolutionary activity and we must do as he taught us to do. We must follow the correct analysis because we know that he is right.

Our emphasis is on the racist Connecticut courts, where racist America hopes to conduct an 1819 style lynching, staged for Chairman Bobby Seale - 1970 - in the corrupt seduced name of justice. That in the historical experiences of Black people in Babylon we have continually failed to receive justice. "Just Ice".

10 million Black caged souls are the present victims of the universal war, thief, and hypocrisy. Domestic imperialism equals fascism. There were 30 million Black growing Panthers, before there was the Black Panther Party.

Denmark Vesey was a Panther. Marcus Garvey was a Panther. El Hajj Malik Shabazz - Brother Malcolm was indeed a Panther and in the end Martin Luther King became an uptight black cat.

The Black Panther Party is an organizational manifestation of the teachings of Brother Malcolm X; it is the demand of our people for an immediate end to cattle prods, water hoses, vicious service revolver bent on the destruction of a race. The Black Panther Party is the practice of what Brother Malcolm preached, and no one can change that. The present has created us, and the present as Brother Randy Williams has said, need only to unleash the Black Kamikazi!

ReNYlet and LHM to Bureau, 6/2/72.

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are five copies of the May, 1972 issue of the Black News.

Analysis of Contents

The May, 1972 issue of the Black News consists of 32 pages of comments, illustrations, and a variety of advertisements from Black business establishments.

The Black News magazine bears no masthead but on Page 4 it is self-described as a "Black nationalist publication", 10 Claver Place, Brooklyn, New York, telephone number 636-9400.

It is noted that telephone number 636-9400 is listed to African American Student Association, 10 Claver Place, Brooklyn, New York, whose telephone bills are paid by Youth in Action, 1180 Fulton Street, Brooklyn, New York, as of 1972. Youth in Action is an anti-poverty program.

Pages 1 and 2 contain an article by EUGENE A. PAUL captioned "Young, Gifted, and Black But Their Souls' Not Hardly Intact". This article seems to find that generation after generation of the Black people seem to be no more prepared for the future than the generation that passed. It states that the anti-poverty programs and extended welfare is used only to cool the revolutionary zeal among Black youths. Malcontents would get $40.00 a week to hang around store fronts and take dope. Organized groups of youths that are threatening drug pushers with bodily harm are trying to solve the drug problem, especially among youths. They are taking the law into their own hands. The answer to where the Black youths are heading is more of a question of what are we doing now with our own children. Youths

Another article states "ROY WILKINS" (Executive Director NAACP) behavior in Africa will be dealt with. This Judas is beyond help in this world anyway. Those who suggest he retire should give him some help".

OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE

NY
Another article on Page Twelve states that the Triangle Shoe Store on Fulton Street in Brooklyn will soon close but two other stores are still open. The article continues we will get them soon. "Triangle sent a cream puff imitation Puerto Rican with a Jewish wife, (HERMAN BADILLO) to check out if Black News gets funds from Washington. That pig was snooping around seeing if the News is funded. (We're Not Funded You Fink)". Another article on Page Twelve states "Interested in a free college scholarship call Sister JEANETTE ADAMS at NSSFNS and ask about the interviews being held on Saturday, May 6th. Not that you can learn anything but maybe you will get a chance to travel and that in itself is an education. Then, when you get on campus agitate, educate, and organize blood (us) like mad."

On Page 15 is the magazine editorial. This article states that the "African nationalist too long has remained aloof and alienated from the Black masses". The article points out that if the average Black person does not go along with a so-called Black nationalist, he is called a nigger Tom, or Whitey lover. Some Black nationalists have even called for this "niggers" death. If the Black nationalist would take time to think about it and study the Black masses, he would find great majority of the Black people are concerned with their own day to day survival.

The African nationalist who has made no inroad with the Black masses could never be elected since Blacks are faithful to politicians coming up for a re-election despite their records of doing absolutely nothing for the Black people. Therefore, a Black nationalist who is attempting to help his people cannot help them by revolutionary methods and cannot help them by attempting to be elected but first must organize an African nationalist party, that is, on the ballot as a result of legitimate petitions by the people. There is no reason why a Black

On 7/25/72, copies of the July-August, 1972 issue of "Triple Jeopardy" were obtained through a confidential mail box of the NY Division.

NY is enclosing for the Bureau two copies of the July-August, 1972 issue which is Volume 1, Number 6, and which is self-described as the "Ideological Organ of the Third World Women's Alliance". This issue contains a note to the subscribers apologizing for the delay in the publication of this issue. It adds that since Triple Jeopardy operates solely by the sale of the paper, the expenses and costs of production are met through direct sales, subscriptions and personal distribution.

Analysis of Content

The articles contained in this issue are as follows:

1. "Student Protests in South Africa", which deals with student-government confrontations in South Africa resulting from student protest of the apartheid educational system. It states that the educational system of South Africa is controlled by the white government and has been designed to perpetuate

ARTICLE

17. ~~X~~ "How Doesn't Care", in which there are quotations from a pamphlet ~~X~~ "Who Cares", which is described as a publication of Black Bash, a liberal South African women's organization, edited by ~~X~~ SHERMAN JONAH. The booklet is concerned with conditions of African women in South Africa and the difficulty facing working women, mothers and people on pensions. According to the article the pamphlet asserts that a stable family life will never be realized in South Africa until the apartheid policies are changed.

The article claims that the white racist regime in South Africa is supported by the investment of large corporations mainly from the United States and England. It goes on to criticize ~~X~~ ROY WILKINS of the NAACP for statements he made about a recent trip to Africa in which he said that Africans would be worse off if American corporations pull out of Africa.

"Triple Jeopardy" claims that the large corporations are exploiting the African workers and that once the working people overthrow the white minority rule and replace it with a government controlled by the laboring class the exploitation will end.

WILKINS is attacked as a "dangerous enemy of both the African and the Afro-American", as well as an apologist for United States imperialism in South Africa.

It claims that no country in the world is safe from imperialist intrigue, pressures, and subversion as long as imperialism under any guise is left in the world.

This issue contains a poem by ~~X~~ RITA CHRISTIAN ~~X~~ JOINA entitled ~~X~~ "Sisters Work is Never Done".

black community to combat a white racist power structure.

The paper stated that some of the black leaders were charging that the Police Department used excessive force in making arrests on November 21, 1969, and that the Board of Education had agreed to three separate actions which would give Negro leaders a greater voice in the administration of Memphis Public Schools, namely, to appoint two Negro advisors to the board; to work for legislation that would provide for Negro representation on the board and a study of the school system's administrative structure to be made with the goal of appointing a Negro Assistant Superintendent and a Negro Coordinator, and that advisors to make this study would be appointed by December 1, 1969.

The paper reported that Roy Wilkins, International Executive Secretary of NAACP, while passing through Memphis, on November 22, 1969, had "expressed confidence in the Negro leadership of the NAACP in Memphis."

The paper stated that Jesse Epps, International Representative of AFSCME denied that the ending of the school issue would hurt his campaign against St. Joseph Hospital in which he was seeking recognition of AFSCME. He said that until this time his union had put a higher priority on the educational issue than on the St. Joseph strike.

Mr. Epps accused the Memphis Police Department of excessive force in effecting November 21, 1969, arrests. The paper quoted the Memphis Police Director Frank C. Holloman as stating that the police had movies and pictures of students arming themselves with bricks, rocks and bottles during the demonstration activities, particularly on November 21, 1969, described above, and that when orders

[REDACTED] that on September 6, 1970 there were about 2,000 persons present for the meeting. Jesse Jackson spoke and his speech was reported well by the Atlanta paper. Roy Innis spoke for education of, for and by blacks. He said Roy Wilkins and Whitney Young were hurting the movement. U

Workshop attended was the Political Liberation which has been attended by some six hundred persons. Nothing concrete has been decided except that a 25-man committee is being appointed to further study the problems brought up at the Congress. U

[REDACTED] advised that all is quiet and nothing has gone as scheduled at the Congress of African Peoples, September 7, 1970. Workshops were to submit results and conclusion at 2:00 P. M., but as of 3:50 P. M. have not done so. U

Dr. V. Harding is hosting the shows today and F. Lewson has introduced speakers. U

Julian Bond spoke about the cost of living being higher than ever. He also talked some of the intimidation of the blacks and that the FBI and its Director are intimidating Martin Luther Kings, Jr.'s widow and children. He referred to the Director of the FBI as a "Little Faggot". U

Other countries represented were Rhodesia by a female and Angola by a male. U

The most spirited speech today was given by Roosevelt Douglas, who offered comments identical to those mentioned in the workshop pertaining to the United States' involvement in the wars. These wars are financial in basis and are anti-black. U

The following article which appeared in the May 1, 1970, edition of the Greenville, Mississippi, daily newspaper, The Delta Democrat Times, stated Henry had written to national civil rights figures inviting them to come to Cleveland "for a demonstration of civil disobedience against Mr. Mitchell's presence there":

Mitchell visit rapped

By JACK NELSON
The Los Angeles Times

WASHINGTON—Mississippi civil rights leaders Thursday launched a campaign for a massive demonstration to protest a scheduled speech by Atty. Gen. John Mitchell to the Delta Council—the epitome of the state's upper-crust white society.

Aaron E. Henry, Mississippi NAACP president said he had failed in quiet efforts to persuade Mitchell not to address the Chamber of Commerce-type organization, which Henry branded "segregationist and racist."

A spokesman for the attorney general said Mitchell does not consider the organization to be racially exclusive and plans to make the speech at its annual meeting on May 19 in Cleveland, Miss.

In letters mailed to other civil rights figures Thursday, Henry accused some Delta Council members of supporting private schools to thwart public school desegregation.

Among those he is inviting to Cleveland are Roy Wilkins, the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, Whitney Young, Bayard Rustin and A. Philip Randolph.

Henry wrote that he was asking national church and civil rights leaders, as well as some political leaders, to convene in Cleveland on May 18 and 19 "for a demonstration of civil disobedience against Mr. Mitchell's presence here."

For years national political figures journeyed to Cleveland to speak at the council's annual meeting. It was there on May 8, 1947, for example, that then-

Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson first mentioned the European recovery program that a bit later was unfolded by Secretary of State George C. Marshall and became known as the Marshall plan. In his book, "Present at the Creation" Acheson wrote of the Delta Council meeting:

"Once a year the Delta Council meets on the tree-shaded lawn of the teachers college at Cleveland, bringing families and relatives with them to discuss their own area's interests and problems and to bear about the great world to which historically their products have gone. Those most immediately concerned listen to the speaker in the large gymnasium of the college. His words are carried to many more thousands on the surrounding lawn while they eat sandwiches, drink pop, and keep an eye on the sleeping children. The scene is an easy-going, good-natured, shirt-sleeved, thoroughly American one. . ."

By the 1960s, however, the heat generated by the civil rights movement persuaded national politicians that the scene might not be so easy-going and they stopped addressing the council. One of the last invited was Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman. A former council official recalled that "Freeman was supposed to come at about the time the freedom rides started and he suddenly decided he had to inspect the cranberry crop somewhere and couldn't come."

For more than two months Henry, a long-time civil rights leader, tried to convince Mitchell that lending the prestige of the attorney general's office to the Delta Council

function would buoy segregationist sentiment.

After Henry first protested, Morris Lewis, Jr. of Indianola council president, wrote him a letter saying that if the council's meeting is all-white "It will be only because no Negroes want to attend. At our annual meetings in the past Negroes have attended and at no time were they denied admittance. . . The Delta Council has never had any restriction on Negro membership."

A spokesman for Mitchell said the attorney general, after receiving a copy of Lewis' letter, decided the council was not racially exclusive.

A former council official who has been a member for more than 20 years told the Los Angeles Times, "I've never seen a black face in the audience at one of our meetings. Negroes are not excluded by the by-laws, but they aren't included as members. It's just like Jews are not excluded by our country club's by-laws, but they're not admitted as members."

Council President Lewis, who is Jewish said in an interview that he financially supports a private school at Indianola. He said he also has supported public schools.

He said he does not know how many of the 18-county council's 4,000 members are Negroes "because our membership cards don't show race, but I recognize one or two names as friends of mine who are Negroes."

"I can say uncategorically I have seen them quite a few times at the meetings, Lewis said. "I can't recall whether I saw an the last year or the year before, but I was told by people I know that they saw some last year."

The centerfold of the September 26, 1970, issue of "The Black Panther" contained an article by NEWTON captioned, "Open Letter To Roy Wilkins".

ROY WILKINS is a national leader of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

The complete text of WILKINS' article referred to by NEWTON is attached as an enclosure to this report.

Following is NEWTON's article:

to have some need for dreams--of self-healing.

The Black Panther Party puts the struggle on such a level and gives analyses and answers to this madness so that it is no longer necessary for the people to accept a dream. We encourage the people to strive for real goals--survival, liberation, and freedom.

The priorities of the Black Panther Party are in full view of all Black people in this land. Our first priority is survival and we place this in the context of the needs of the people. Therefore our programs have helped people to survive through Breakfast for School Children, Health Clinics, and newly-developing programs such as Free Clothing, Free Shoes, Loans to Welfare Mothers, and Free Buses to Prisons for Families of Inmates. The people have rallied to these programs because they meet their basic and daily needs. The priorities of the Black Panther Party are well stated in our ten-point program which is published weekly in our paper.

We recognize that our oppression is supported and maintained by the fire-power utilized by the agents of the omnipotent administrators. We recognize that the small ruling class which exploits us here finds it to their economic advantage to exploit the people of distant lands. We recognize that America is no longer a nation but an empire and the same troops who were sent to kill in Jackson State, Birmingham, Chicago and New Orleans are also killing in my land. We recognize that the same ruling class which exploits the military and government here also exploits the military and government in South Vietnam and Cambodia.

America is World Enemy #1 and the military is its strong arm. We feel that it is imperative (necessary) to defend people of color when they are attacked by American troops in other lands. These attacks are designed to maintain the profit-mongering of the ruling class and their carbon lackeys. Black people in America have long been affected in a negative way by America's war--of imperialism. The Black Panther Party now understands that it is going on and is moving to develop appropriate responses. We are internationalists because our struggle must proceed on many fronts. While we feed and clothe the poor at home we must meet and attack the oppressor wherever he may be found.

It is clear, however, that you are also an internationalist, but in support of imperialism and at the expense of Black people who contribute so much to you. Recently you signed a full page advertisement in the New York Times urging this government to send jets to Israel. We challenge you to show the people how your support of this is designed to improve their lot rather than your own self-interests. That advertisement cost several thousand dollars of somebody's money which could have been put to good use for those very Black people you accuse of looting. Why do you support imperialism and ignore the reality which indicates so clearly that the only solution to Black problems is a complete overthrowing of capitalism and the ruling class? All of our people are being killed at the same time and in the same way. We need to attack the oppressor and that only revolution can do it.

Of course, Huey knows about this suffering. It was the resentment over this treatment that led, at least in part, to the founding of the Black Panther Party. But Huey, for all his talents, is also a revolutionary. He believes in the Black Revolution and the following line:

"We are not waiting an improvement in our lot. We are worried about keeping it. We are not saying that we love the white man. We are merely saying that the white man is the enemy of the Black man. We are not saying that we are moved but little by the white man's oppression. We are merely saying that the white man is copped up on老子-ism. They should know that the Black people of Washington, D.C., the nation's capital, are being hit in their homes each night, harassed, beaten over robberies, rapes and murders. In all cities, big and little, coalitions and officials and just plain Black citizens are battling for jobs and paychecks.

They need low-income housing in suburbs. Mississippi has just reapportioned several districts and wants to reduce the Black vote by requiring re-registration. In short, as the late Bert Williams, the Black comedian, once said:

"We need everything from an overcoat in this state, a Newton top priority plan for a company of Black American soldiers to fight for the Viet Cong generates only damn enthusiasm. Newton, an attractive and capable young man, is described by one person as being the darling of White revolutionaries."

the Selma-Dallas County area. The Reverend F. D. Reese of the Dallas County Voters League and such other moderate leaders, such as Reverend L. D. Shirley Mesher, a white civil rights worker, and Clarence Williams. This faction heads a small minority of young militant Negroes. The community support and political power in the black community appears to be centered with the more moderate group. The more moderate group is encouraged by, and receives political support from, the white community and this group is being encouraged to form a strong NAACP chapter. AIX

There is no open support or publicity for the Poor People's Campaign March on the Alabama State Capitol Building in the Selma-Dallas County area.

Sources active and knowledgeable of affairs in the black community have advised that there is no activity on the part of any white or any black group of a nature that would cause tension between the races in the community and that, therefore, there has been no counter activity by any opposing group, which counter activity is generally the primary cause of trouble in the area.

Roy Wilkins, President of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) is scheduled to speak at Selma University Auditorium, Selma, Alabama, under the auspices of the local chapter of the NAACP.

Reverend C. A. Lett, Pastor of the Greene Street, Baptist Church and Treasurer of Selma University, made arrangements for the talk due to the dissatisfaction of local Negroes with what they have classified as "irresponsible direct action" activities by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) leadership. A threat by the local SCLC to boycott and demonstrate in protest at the visit of Wilkins has been dismissed by the black community as just being a threat with no substance to it.

My memorandum October 16, 1963, recommended that information about the participation of two Wisconsin Communist Party, USA, district functionaries in a Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) picket line in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, be furnished, through Crime Records Division, to Mr. James Farmer and Mr. Roy Wilkins, national functionaries of CORE and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, respectively. The purpose would be to warn those officials of the action of Communist Party members in participating in civil rights demonstrations and possibly illicit from them a public statement repudiating such Party support. This recommendation was approved by the Director.

Mr. DeLoach inquired about the possibilities of giving Mr. Farmer the names of the communists.

This is to advise that the two above referred to Party members are [REDACTED] b7C
The fact that they are district functionaries and participated in the picketing in Milwaukee is publicly known and may be given to Mr. Farmer by Mr. DeLoach without jeopardizing any Bureau sources or informants.

SUBJECT: COMMUNIST PARTY, USA
COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Two situations concerning the Communist Party (CP), USA, and the civil rights movement are illustrated below with two suggestions which may be instrumental in curbing to some extent the Party's activities in that movement.

1. Two Wisconsin CPUSA District functionaries joined a Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) picket line recently in Milwaukee and may do so again in the future. No indication CORE knew of their CP association. (A Milwaukee newspaper source is being notified so any future CP member appearance on that picket line can be publicized).
2. The CPUSA continues, as it has since its inception, its determined appeals to the Negro in America. Through its press, notably "The Worker," the CP is extensively publicizing the current racial unrest to show its alleged concern for the Negro.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED

OBSERVATIONS:

If CP members have joined CORE picket lines in Milwaukee they may join them in other cities. It follows that CP members may join any similar activity by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), which, along with CORE, is very active in the civil rights movement.

Since the Bureau has excellent contacts through James Farmer in CORE and Roy Wilkins in the NAACP, as well as others in the news media field, it is suggested that:

1. Crime Records Division advise Mr. Farmer and Mr. Wilkins of the Milwaukee incident. (This will not compromise any Bureau sources or informants). It could be tactfully suggested to those contacts that they may wish to make a public statement repudiating any CP support of their organizations and organizational activities.

2. Any resulting statement could then be publicized through the Bureau's news media contacts including the Negro press.

This two-phase plan would vividly demonstrate to the American public that the civil rights movement is a definite CP target. It would further show that the Negro is aware of the CP aims and is attempting to resist them. Public disavowal of CP support by Negro spokesmen could be a serious blow to the Party.

RECOMMENDATION:

Forward to Mr. DeLoach for his consideration of the two suggestions itemized above.

African Liberation Coordinating Committee

By Marjorie Hylton
Special to The Washington Post
NEW YORK, March 21—Can black Americans be mobilized into as powerful a pressure group for the liberation movements of South Africa as Americans have been for Israel? This is the dream—admittedly a long way from achievement—of a growing number of black leaders who see the destiny of American blacks linked with that of the continent from which their ancestors were carried in chains. Increasingly this spring, campaigns are being mounted that will seek to activate and harness pan-African sentiments of American blacks on behalf of action in the white-supremacist dominated countries of South Africa, Namibia (South West Africa) and Rhodesia as well as the Portuguese colonies of Angola, Mozambique and Guinea.

These efforts are getting substantial support from members of the white Protestant church establishment whose mission boards have experienced first hand the inhumanities of regimes based on racial discrimination. A week conference here on Wednesday at the Church Center of the United Nations, Imamu Baraka, formerly known as Leroy Jones, announced plans for marches and demonstrations in Washington to celebrate "African Liberation Day" on May 25.

A Washington-based organization called the African Liberation Day Co-ordinating Committee has been established to enlist participation of blacks throughout the United States and the West Indies and to work out details of the day itself.

A week ago, a two-day conference was held in Washington on the United States and Southern Africa. It drew more than 200 persons—representatives of churches, human rights organizations, labor unions and individuals who are active in Africa.

A stated purpose of the conference was to explore ways in which concerned persons and groups in this country could provide support of various kinds for the African liberation movements.

According to the plans announced here, the African Liberation Day observance in Washington will include demonstrations in front of the Portuguese and South African embassies and the Rhodesian Information Center.

Baraka also promised demonstrations to dramatize "black peoples' disgust with American foreign policy toward Africa." The United States, he charged, "one of the chief oppressors of Africans in the world."

What is significant about the African Liberation Day Co-ordinating Committee is the spectrum of black leadership it brings together. Members of its steering committee run the gamut from churchmen to Black Panthers, from congressmen to avowed Communists.

The list includes the Rev. Ralph Abernathy of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference; Amiri Baraka, now on trial for conspiracy to murder and kidnap; Reps. John Conyers (D-Mich.) and Charles Diggs (D-Mich.); Stokely Carmichael, Del. Walter Rosten (D-D.C.); the Rev. L. Martin Luther King, Jr., communications executive of the National Council of Churches;

Rep. Brown, now in New York on speaking tour for Sclero; the Rev. Dr. Charles Shaver of the World Council of Churches; and Black Panther leader Huey Newton.

One name conspicuously absent from the list is that of longtime civil rights leader Roy Wilkins of the NAACP. Wilkins created consternation among liberationists in this country last week when he said during a visit to South Africa that black workers there would suffer economic hardship if American goods were pulled out.

In a prepared statement at the press conference, Baraka unleashed a blistering attack on Wilkins using phrases like "primarily responsible," "puppet" and "traitor to the majority of the black world."

Baraka, one of the organizers of the recent National Black Political Convention in Gary, Ind., acknowledged at the press conference that the African Liberation Day observance was intended as much to build unity among American blacks as to influence foreign policy. The Wilkins incident is illustrative of the lack of unity even among the relatively small percentage of blacks in America who have evidenced any active interest in Africa in liberation struggle. Many of the financial and political support of the African Liberation Day Co-ordinating Committee is coming from church churches by way of AFRO—the International Foundation for Community Organization. AFRO was set up five years ago in the wake of the Detroit riot to help churches put their money where their resolutions were.

With the recent decline of church income and a noticeable white backlash within some denominations, AFRO needs to continue as an increasingly fragile bridge between minority groups and its supporting white denominations.

On March 22, a two-day summit against organization, AFRO Action, was formed with the avowed purpose of attempting to influence legislation and affect social change. Support of the African liberation struggle is one of its top priorities. AFRO Action was involved in the unsuccessful attempt to prevent the unloading of Rhodesian chrome in Harare, Z.A. two weeks ago.

AFRO Action has also held several meetings with all kinds of the nation's businessmen and labor unionists against white domination against black.

The chairman of AFRO Action is Stokely Carmichael, who has been a leading figure in the African liberation struggle. He is currently in the United States, where he is working to build a strong African liberation movement. He is also working to build a strong African liberation movement in the United States.

The Black Panther, the official publication of the BPP, in its issue of May 4, 1969, on page 10, carried an article entitled, "The Black Panther Party Authorizes Leadership in Scandinavia." This article was signed David Hilliard, Chief of Staff, BPP Central Committee and Bobby Seale, Chairman of the BPP. The article reads as follows:

"TO: Solidarity Committee for Third World Peoples' Liberation Struggle Established in the Scandinavian countries and composed of the Copenhagen, Denmark Solidarity Committee Black Liberation and in Stockholm, Sweden, the BPP Solidarity Committee.

FROM: The Central Committee of the National Organization of the Black Panther Party.

REFERENCE: Authorization of Skip Malone and Connie Mathews and recognition of these officers' representation of the BPP, the revolutionary vanguard in the U.S.A.

"It has been approved by the Black Panther Central Committee that the Solidarity Committee for the Third World Peoples' Liberation Struggle, represented by Skip Malone and Connie Mathews and established in the Scandinavian countries communicates and represents the BPP's political demonstrations of support, raise funds, and inform the peoples of Scandinavia about poor black and oppressed peoples revolutionary struggle from the Panthers vanguard position, won in blood and battle against America's imperialistic, vicious pigs (police)."

The July 5, 1969 issue of "The Black Panther", Black Community News Service, which is the Black Panther Party newspaper, on page 5 reprinted a telegram from Roy Wilkins from New York to Bobby Seale, Chairman, Central Committee, BPP, Berkeley, California. Wilkins as Chief Executive Officer of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), requested a private meeting with officers of the Central Committee of the BPP and particularly with Bobby Seale as Chairman of this Committee. The same page of the BPP newspaper July 5, 1969 issue contained a reply to Wilkins from Bobby Seale, Chairman of the Central Committee, BPP. This telegram stated that the BPP would only meet with Wilkins in a public meeting in West Oakland.

The July 19, 1969 issue of "The Black Panther", Black Community News Service newspaper on page 27 lists the Central Committee of the BPP as Huey P. Newton as Minister of Defense; Bobby Seale, Chairman; Eldridge Cleaver, Minister of Information; David Hilliard, Chief of Staff; Ray "Masai" Newitt, Minister of Education; Kathleen Cleaver, Communications Secretary; and Emory Douglas, Minister of Culture.

On page 27 of the same issue of the BPP newspaper, the rules of the BPP as established by the Central BPP Headquarters and Central Committee members are printed for all

QUOTE... I AM DESIROUS OF EXPLORATORY CONFERENCE WITH OFFICERS OF MILITANT GROUPS AND PARTICULARLY WITH YOU AS CHAIRMAN OF THE SPP. I DO NOT DESIRE PUBLIC MEETINGS AT THIS TIME. CANNOT ARRANGE TRIP TO WEST COAST BEFORE LATE JULY BECAUSE OF PRIOR COMMITMENTS. AS TO AREAS OF POSSIBLE AGREEMENT AND DISAGREEMENT, IT IS PURELY AN ASSUMPTION ON MY OWN AUTHORITY AS CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF NAACP. IT IS OFFICIAL, OF COURSE, BUT NOT <sup>IND</sup> B~~E~~ING, NOR DOES IT HAVE FORMAL ENDORSEMENT OF MY BOARD OF DIRECTORS. I SIMPLY FEEL VERY STRONGLY THAT PRESENT SITUATION OF OUR RACE REQUIRES TRYING TO REA<sup>CH</sup> SOME COMMON GROUND AND ARRIVAL AT SOME SORT OF STRATEGY THAT WILL BE EFFECTIVE EVEN IF PRODUCTIVE ONLY IN A FEW AREAS. I MAY BE IN ERROR AND THERE IS NOT UNANIMOUS SUPPORT EVEN AMONG MY IMMEDIATE CO-WORKERS OF STAFF. THUS I FEEL MUST TRY. I HOPE WE CAN CONTINUE THE EFFORT TO ARRIVE AT A MUTUALLY SATISFACTORY MEETING DATE AND PLACE LATE IN JULY OR EARLY IN AUGUST. SIGNED, ROY WILKINS, ONE ZERO SEVEN TWO LYNCH STREET, JACKSON, MISS. END QUOTE.

SEALE STATES IT IS OBVIOUS THAT WILKINS DOES NOT WANT TO MEET WITH THE PEOPLE AND THAT HE IS SEPARATED FROM THE BLACK COMMUNITY, IF WILKINS WAS REALLY CONCERNED<sup>H</sup> WE WOULD HAVE ACCEPTED A PUBLIC MEETING.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP) - INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS - CANADA

Sources of the San Francisco Office have advised they knew of no plans on the part of the Black Panther Party (BPP) to establish a branch anywhere in Canada. Likewise they knew of no plans for reported regrouping or retraining.

The Black Panther Party (BPP) is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It formerly advocated the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government. Since early 1971, it has preached a policy of "survival pending revolution."

The "Los Angeles Times" of August 6, 1972, contained an interview of BPP leader Huey P. Newton, who claimed the BPP was very much alive with chapters "all over the country". No mention was made of any activity or interest outside the USA.

Recent issues of the Black Panther newspaper, as in the past, continued to refer to Party activities across the USA, but no mention has been made of any interest in affairs in Canada.

The chief thrust of the BPP at this period is in community political actions.

Current issues of the Party newspaper always mention that Bobby Seale, Chairman of the BPP, is running for Mayor of Oakland, California, in April, 1973, and urge its readers to register to vote. (See Black Panther issue of September 30, 1972).

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency nor duplicated within your agency.

~~Roy Wilkins~~, head of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), in the Oakland "Tribune" of October 3, 1972, claimed that the BPP was "not the bogeyman" it was often charged to be, and now had joined the NAACP in following the strategy of working within the system by exercising power at the ballot box.

The Registrar of Voters, Alameda County, California, in October, 1972, advised that the BPP had furnished 105 out of 145 Deputy Registrars to work in the voter registration just recently closed.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals, in a decision rendered in a case involving a member of the BPP, dated June 30, 1972, called the BPP "a dissident political party".

Chairman Bobby Seale was featured in a five part statement in San Francisco radio station KCBS beginning August 7, 1972. This series featured the "evolution" of the BPP from a revolutionary organization to one working within the system, under the first two paragraphs of the Declaration of Independence.

The prime interest in "The Black Panther" issue of November 4, 1972, was a printed guide to the California residents on how to vote on the various state propositions.
